Catkiller Windbreaker: Size men’s large, only one left! This is a lightweight, lined, waterproof windbreaker with the patches sewn on. The Velcro is sewn on for a name tag which you will have to order (about $15.00) from www.nametags4u.com. I live in the mountains (7,000 feet) and this jacket is perfect for those uncomfortably cool evenings and mornings. At $55.00 this is a steal!

Catkiller B-15 medium weight Flight Jacket:

This is a great jacket with a removable fur collar. It is a men's size large with the American Flag on the left shoulder, 1st Aviation Brigade on the right, and the Catkiller patch on the breast. The Velcro is sewn on for a name tag. It was purchased from US Wings (high quality stuff). Here is their description: "Take to the skies in our Vintage Cotton B-15 Flyer's Jacket! Styled like those worn by our F-86 pilots during the Korean War, this lightweight garment is perfect for those cool spring days & mild summer evenings and features a removable faux fur collar. Its 100% cotton shell has been washed to give it that "vintage" look & feel so the jacket is soft & comfortable from the moment you slip it on. Features include a quilted nylon lining, two front slash pockets with snap closure, one inside zipper pocket, zippered pen/utility pocket on the left sleeve, bi-swing back for freedom of movement, antiqued brass zipper, inside wind flap, and knit cuffs & waistband. This outstanding warm weather flight jacket will keep you looking good in the air or on the ground!" They call it light weight, but trust me it is a medium weight (or more) jacket. We have over $90.00 invested with the shipping, patches and sewing. It is on sale for our cost of $90.00! Only one in stock!

Here are two beautifully framed prints of the Vietnam wall. They are 16"X 20" and I believe were donated for the reunion. $20.00 each or both for $35.00! I don't think you can buy the frames for that. Plastic corner protectors are still on the frames.

US Navy Plaque: Here is another donated Item that is absolutely beautiful. It is a 12” diameter beauty, made with wooden inlay and raised lettering, and an exquisite lacquer finish. This would make a wonderful gift to a family member or friend who proudly served in the US Navy. Only one available for $25.00. The photo doesn’t do it justice!

Catkiller MA-1 Flight Jacket: The tag on this jacket is a men’s medium, but it is really a large or extra large. I swim in it, and my son (who is 6’, and 225 lbs) can wear it. It has all of the patches sewn on and is sage green. The liner is a warm black nylon material with a handy interior breast pocket. Only one available for $65.00!
